Thank you for facilitating a great trip for us. Your staff were excellent, striking a very happy, appropriate rapport with our guys; the site is tremendous – the emphasis on safety was clearly instinctive and absolutely natural, and all the more impressive for that – and while it provided good opportunities for being supportive and breaking some boundaries, fundamentally we had a lot of fun, which was great when all around they are being beset by exam pressures.

I really recommend it, the days plans were excellent and we left tired, exhilarated and happy.
